An Eastern young man returned home a few days ago from a trip to Colorado for his health, and in narrating his adventures he told about buying a silver mine for $3,000. "I knew they'd rope you in!" exclaimed

"I show they'd rope you in!" exclaimed the old man. "So you were as enough to buy a humbug mine."
"Yes, but I didn't lose anything. I formed a company and sold half the stock to a Connecticut man for $7,000."
"Y—you did!" gasped the old man as he turned white, "I'll bet I'm the one who bought it." bought it."

"I know you are:" coolly observed the young man, as he crossed his legs and tried to appear very much at home.—[Wall Street News.

WASHINGTON'S NINE.

Effect of the Preliminary Injunction on the American Association, Mr. Scanlon, manager of the Nation Baseball Club, has returned from Philadel phis highly delighted with the admission of its club to the American Association. "The Nationals," he says, "will carry thirteen players on their pay rolls next season, and the names of the men thus far engaged are Barr and Miller, Lynch and Reipschlager, Cushman, the left-handed pitcher, and Holbert, batteries; Baker, Knowles and Gladmon on the bases; Houck short stop, and Burch left field. One of the catchers will play centre fielder, so that, as I said before, all that is needed is a good right-field man. While we are not boasting as to our intentions, one thing may be set down as certain, Washington will not be last in the champtonable race next year."

as certain, Washington will not be last in the championship race next year."

The Philadelphia Times of this morning says regarding the proliminary injunction granted the Metropolitans yesterday:

"It seems to be the opinion of many basebail men that the American Association will soon be a thing of the past. Common Pleas Court, No. 4, yesterday continued the preliminary bismetion granted the Metropolitan Club of New York to restrain the association from arranging a schedule of games for the coming season without that organization being awarded its share of the contests. Judge Thayer, ingiving the opinion, very plainly indicated that the casiest way out of the dilemma was for the association to dissolve and organize anew without way out of the dilemma was for the associa-tion to dissolve and organize anew without the Mets. It would then be 'a matter with which the court has nothing to do,' he said, but as long as the association exists as now constituted 'it must be held to the rules which define the rights of its members. It cannot ignore those rules and expel a mem-ber without notice or trial. While these parties continue as an association the com-plainants are entitled to recognition and to exercise their share of influence in its

There was a meeting of the ladies interested in the proposed Christmas dinner to be given to the poor children of the Second. Division, called for yesterday afternoon, but the attendance was not as large as was desired, and they adjourned until to morrow at 11 o'clock. The children who are members of the Christmas Club and all who desire to become members are requested to meet at the Franklin School Building on to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and register their names and receive tickets entitling them to be present in the feast.

Christmas Trade.

This bright, beautiful day has caused the avenues and business streets to be thronged with women, maids and children in search of holiday goods. The stores and shops are crowded, the handsome girls at the counters smiling and attentive, the clerks busy and the proprietors happy. It has been a good day for the opening Christmas trade.

Holiday Groceries, Liquors and Confections.

The Chicago Grocery Company, 806 Seventh street northwest, have received their Seventh street northwest, have received their immense supplies for the holiday trade.
